

Center for Water & Society
World Water Day Events
March 22-23, 2016

2016 World Water Day Theme: Water and Jobs

Distinguished Speaker: John Austin

Author of "Blue Economy"

Prima Civitas Foundation / Brookings Institute Fellow

"Water is our Past- Water is our Future"
A New Blue Economy

Dow 641 at 4:00 pm, Tuesday, March 22
Reception Following

March 22-23

Poster Session

Dow Atrium-Campus Side

2:30-4:00 Tuesday

8:00-5:00 Wednesday

March 22 - April 30

Art Exhibit: "On Currents and Eddies"

Featured Artists:

Philip Faulkner, Rachel Singel, Nicholas Lampert
and the Northwoods Kids

Great Lakes Research Center, 8:00-8:00 pm, M-F

Wednesday, March 23

Panel Discussion:

"Blue Economy"

GLRC 202, 10.30-12:00 pm

Panelists:

John Austin, Prima Civitas Foundation

Alex Mayer, CEE, MTU

Jim Compton, Hydrology Engineering, City of Marquette

Erin Johnston, Lake Superior Program Coordinator, KBIC

Debbie Williamson, Keweenaw Bay Indian Community

Moderator: Latika Gupta, SBE, MTU

Wednesday, March 23

Green Film: "Lost Rivers"

Forestry G002, 7:00-8:30 pm

Facilitator: Jim Compton, City of Marquette

Sponsored by: Michigan Tech Center for Water & Society, Great Lakes Research Center, Lake Superior Stewardship Initiative, Keweenaw Unitarian Universalist Fellowship, Keweenaw Land Trust, MTU Visual & Performing Arts