Governance and Valuation of Great Lakes Water for the 21st Century

Friday, September 26, 2008
----------------------------------------
John Austin, Executive Director
The New Economy Initiative for Southeast Michigan (NEI)
“Healthy Waters, Strong Economy: The Benefits of Restoring the Great Lakes Ecosystem”
DOW 642 3:00-4:00 pm

Wednesday, October 1, 2008
----------------------------------------
Dave Dempsey, Great Lakes Policy Advisor for Clean Water Action *
“Great Lakes Water: Commodity or Commons? The Great Lakes Compact in the Context of Global Water Scarcity”
M&M U113 12:00-1:00 pm
* Sponsored by the Lake Superior Stewardship Initiative, which is a part of the Great Lakes Stewardship Initiative, funded by the Great Lakes Fisheries Trust and Wege Foundation.
http://wupcenter.mtu.edu/lssi/

Wednesday, October 1, 2008
----------------------------------------
Pat Norris, Guyer-Seevers Chair in Natural Resource Conservation, MSU
Saichon Seedang, post-doc, MSU Institute of Water Research
DOW 610 3:00-4:00 pm

Thursday, October 2, 2008
----------------------------------------
John F. Raffensperger, Univ. of Canterbury, New Zealand
“Generalized Smart Markets for Water Resources”
DOW 642 3:00-4:00 pm

Photo by Andrew Stewart, courtesy of the Pasty Cam